Resolutions of Respect

Whereas, brother Frank Cordier, departed this life on the 30th day of September, 1912, leaving surviving him a widow, one daughter and three sons and innumerable friends, who mourn his loss, therefore, be it Resolved, that Stanford Lodge, No. 156, has lost a true and good brother Odd Fellow, a splendid exemplification of what is just and honorable his family a true and loving head, and the community in which he lived one of its truest and best citizens.

That Stanford Lodge feels a distinct and enduring loss in the death of brother Cordier, and to his family we extend our sincere heartfelt sympathy in this their sad hour of sorrow. That a copy of these resolutions be furnished the widow of our deceased brother, a copy sent to the Interior Journal, for publication, and a copy spread upon the minute book of this lodge.

Respectfully Submitted

October at Hustonville was inaugurated with first white frost of the season. It remains for some savor to decide which stage is light of the moon before many can determine probable damage to sweet potatoes.

Two of Lincoln's big sales concluded 2nd inst, and only the accident that the state's spellbinders, like Dunn and Tom English were rival attractions assured a division of crowd and spirited scrambles for all bargains at both.

The political quiet of this end is quieting. Not a bellow of the Bull Moose, nor a trumpet of G. O. P. elephant has been heard, and oceous clamor of democratic donkey savors more of a satisfied soliloquy or hubbub of a pleasant dream than of boastful defiance.

A herd of 200 cattle from Cumberland and Adair counties was driven through here last week en route to Lexington. Two days later routine business was transacted after which the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: J. S. Hoekner, President, J. W. Alcorn, Vice President, J. W. Hayden, Secretary and Treasurer. The directors of this company which has valuable coal and timber holdings in Harlan and adjoining counties, are: J. A. Craft, of Louisville, James W. Fox, of Big Stone Gap, Va., J. W. Huyden, of Paris, J. S. Hoekner, and J. W. Alcorn, this city, R. Boyd and James Horning, London, Dr. J. M. Williams, Knoxville, and Horace M. Fox, of Virginia. All were present except the first named.

A year or so ago the Cumberland Valley Land Co., sold to the Boring Land & Mining Co., which has its headquarters at Rowland, some 3,500 acres of land, and timber holdings in Harlan and adjoining counties, are: J. A. Craft, of Louisville, James W. Fox, of Big Stone Gap, Va., J. W. Huyden, of Paris, J. S. Hoekner, and J. W. Alcorn, this city, R. Boyd and James Horning, London, Dr. J. M. Williams, Knoxville, and Horace M. Fox, of Virginia. All were present except the first named.

Last Monday evening Rev. Wilson, son of Sulphur, Henry county entertained an audience at the Christian church with his brief career, as missionary along the Congo in Africa.

Mr. Wilson presented very feelingly the capabilities of the natives and their enthusiastic response to civilizing influences. He exhibited many curios illustrative of their barbaric fashions and customs, and implements and fabrics manifesting much skill and taste. Equatorial swamps and their unsavory accompaniments and products rapidly wreck health of even comparatively robust specimens of our climate, and the missionary's sojourn is either short or fatal.

Edelen's Fine Record at State Fair.

The Farmer's Home Journal pays high compliment to the great show made by Allen Edelen's horses at the recent State Fair. It said: The Glenworth saddle horse farm, of Burgin, Ky., has established a record for winning ribbons at the Kentucky State Fair—16 out of 18 shows. Mr. Edelen, the proprietor, has been the heaviest ribbon winner here several different years, but has never before won such a percentage. Glenworth is the home of Bohemian King, and his get which by the way are nearly all of the popular chestnut color. In the ring for finest and best saddle-bred filly under one year old the get of Bohemian won first, second and third monies—first going to Bohemian Music, chestnut colored, out of Kentucky Belle, by Thornton's Star; second to Bohemian Art, chestnut colored, out of Lady Dare, by Chester Dare, and third to Glendalaugh, chestnut colored, out of Highland Maid, by Highland Diamond. It is claimed that no other saddle stallion has ever sired three money winners in this ring at the State Fair. Notwithstanding no two of the dams of the winners were the same colors the premium foals were chestnuts because of Bohemian King's tendency to sire that color on account of

Why Women Are Not RICH.

Man is a millionaire many times over in the possession of blood cells. Woman is not quite so rich, for scientists have proven that the normal man has five million—the woman only four and a half million to a cubic millimeter of blood.

A decrease in number of red blood corpuscles and a person "looks pale"—in fact, is anemic, the blood does not get the right food and probably the stomach is disordered.

Dr. R. V. Pierce found years ago that a glyceric extract of golden seal and Oregon grape root, queen's root and bloodroot with black cherry bark, would help the assimilation of the food in the stomach, correct liver ills and in Nature's own way increase the red blood corpuscles. This medicine he called Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. By assimilating the food eaten the system is nourished and the blood takes on a rich red color. Nervousness is only "the cry of the starved nerves for food," and when the nerves are fed on rich red blood the person loses those irritable feelings, sleeps well at night and is refreshed in the morning.

"I was attacked with a severe nervous disease, which was caused by a disease of the liver, written Mr. JAS. LIVELY, of Lancaster, Route 2, Box 1. All my friends thought I was dead. The best physicians gave me up. All my friends advised me to try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and derived much benefit from same. My case had run so long, had become so chronic that nothing would help. I permanent cure I had. This medicine has now made me a perfect specimen of health. I heartily advise its use as a spring tonic, and further advise all young people to take Dr. Pierce's medicine before their diseases have run so long that there is no chance to be cured."

W. H. Peoples, northeast of Stanford, who sold his cattle to Ike Shelby several months ago, delivered them the first. There were about 40 in the herd, and Mr. Peoples got 5 cents a pound for them. As they went to about 1,200 pounds in weight, they proved a fortunate investment for Mr. Shelby at the present price of beef cattle.

James Yowell, of Hustonville, sold to W. B. Burton, the Lancaster shipper, a pair of six-year-old mares for $325. He also sold him a Shetland gelding for $85.

Mr. James B. Parks, of Kingston, Madison county, sold last week to Simon Weil one hundred 1,600 pound cattle at $9 per hundred, to be delivered November 1. This is a record price for cattle in Madison county and possibly the highest ever paid for a bunch of cattle in the state, says the Kiemand Climax.

Thomas M. Manning, who has been living near the Givens place on the Hubble pike, north of town, for several years, this week, purchased of Green Ferrill, his farm of 41 acres, lying about two and a half miles from Stanford on the Lancaster pike. The Board of Regents of the Eastern Kentucky Normal School has just closed a deal for the purchase of a school farm to be used in connection with the Department of Agriculture. During the coming year, this department is to be exclusively developed at Eastern in order to meet the demand for trained teachers of Agriculture in the rural, graded and high schools. Prof. J. S. R. S. Seudler, the intelligent young horseman, of McKinney, this county, added another fine brood and show mare to his herds last week when he bought Diana Dare, by Chester Dure from Thurman & Peters, of Springfield, and also her filly colt by Bourbon's Best. She is the dam of Red Delight which Mr. Seudler recently bought. Mr. Seudler did not keep Diana Dare, selling her to W. F. Massie, of Paris, who has bought so many of the Seudler horse recently.

Col. L. M. Dunn, the popular auctioneer who was here Wednesday to cry the big J. H. Baughman sale, brought along and showed to some friends a bunch of North Carolina tobacco which sold for $1 a pound on the breaks in that state last week. The weed is almost saffron yellow in color, the bleaching being done by steam drying in the barn. Mr. Dunn says that there is no reason why Kentucky tobacco growers cannot obtain the same valuable color, if they ro at it right, and he believes that it will be but a short time until they do so.

Jeffers, former sheriff of that county, S. M. Noel and J. C. McDonald. They purchased a trio of nice mules from Cashier W. M. Bright of the Lincoln County National Bank, living for $200 for a nice pair of two-year-old mare mules, and $125 for a three-year-old horse hybrid. They also got a mare mule from Frank Smith, one mile out on the Danville pike, which cost them $150, and gave S. G. Brown, of the Embunk section, $425 for an extra pair of mare mules. All of these went in the ear of stock which they bought at the sale. Mr. Noel bought a nice Shetland gelding from Sam Embry, Jr., that cost $52.50 and Mr. Jeffers bought a walk gelding from George Shelby for $115.

A Remedy No Family Should Do Without

No "matter" how healthy a human being may be, it is safe to say that many months are passed without some obstruction of the bowels, in other words, constipation, even if only temporary, is the rule. The dull, heavy feeling may start after the evening meal. If a constipated person sleeps that night it is certain that sleep will not be sound, and you will feel tired and listless the next day.

Hence, it is important for you and for all the members of your family that a good, reliable laxative be always kept at the house for just such emergencies. It is sure to be needed, when you want it at hand. No family that is careful of its health can do without such a remedy. But the question of which remedy to have on hand is also of vast importance.

The laxative most highly recommended by the majority of intelligent Americans as being best for babies and grownups is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Poppy.

It is the best all-around remedy you can have in the house for any disorder of the stomach, liver and bowels, and many people like R. H. Morgan, Price Tamm, Mrs. H. C. Davidson, Wartee, Tenn., say they would as soon be without Caldwell's Syrup Poppy.

Anyone wishing to make a trial of this remedy before buying it in the regular way of a druggist at fifty cents or one of a large bottle (family size) can have a sample of it free of charge by simply addressing Dr. W. H. Caldwell, 405 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. Your name and address on a postal card will do.
